FATHER JACOBI RECOVERING AND DUE BACK AT HIS CHURCH

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor H. Joseph Jacobi returned here last week to complete his rest and recuperation period before resuming his duties as pastor of Annunciation Church in New Orleans.

Father Jacobi is spending his stay here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jacobi, Sr., on Main street.

Following a serious heart attack on April 28, Father Jacobi left for an extended rest tour of Nebraska and Maine. It was many weeks before he was able to exert himself, but now he says he "feels fine."

The Rev.'s father, Louis Jacobi Sr., echoed the sentiments of the family when he said, "I'm glad he's back again. We surely worried about him."

Within two or three weeks the father expects to be back at his duties. However, friends and parishioners have made things a little bit easier for him by installing a loudspeaker system in the church and an elevator in the rectory.

After six weeks in Hotel Dieu hospital in New Orleans, Father Jacobi flew to Elkhorn, Neb., near the famous Boys' Town of Father Flanagan.

From Nebraska he went to Orono, Maine, where he lived under the care and surveillance of Dr. William Thibodeaux.

"My room there was as close to the edge of the coast as it could be," Father Jacobi said. "I started to walk again there and gradually I felt myself getting stronger."

During his travels in the last few months the Rev. has not been forgotten by his many friends. "I received letters all the time, and they played a great part in helping me get well," Father said. "I even got one from one of my parishioners who was on the high seas."

"I think along with the letters, the prayers and good attention of the people made it possible for me to return," he added.

Father Jacobi is a former president of the National Conference of Catholic Charities. He has also served as the vice-president of the Catholic Hospital Association of the United States and Canada.

Before assuming his post at Annunciation he was executive director of the Association of Catholic Charities from 1937 to 1949.

Also at the home on Main St. with Father Jacobi are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jacobi and their children Delta, Margo, Vicki Lou, Mary Jo and Larry.

Other members of the family who are glad to have the Rev. back are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jacobi Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albert Jacobi of New Orleans and Mrs. Lionel Hebert, of Lake Charles, La.

HUBBARD QUESTIONS EXPENDITURES FOR WOOD PRESERVATIVES

R. G. Hubbard, Jr., Hancock County supervisor for Beat Five, today questioned the expenditures for wood preservatives in the four other beats.

Hubbard said he felt "there is an excessive amount of preservative purchased in Hancock county."

Hubbard said: "I have used less than $30 worth (of preservative), therefore I am at a loss to understand how the other four districts could purchase more than $22,000 worth in one year and eight months. One district alone purchased $16,000 worth of wood preservative and only $1,400 worth of lumber. At this rate since our bid price on lumber is $74 per thousand, it is costing approximately $900 to preserve $74 worth of lumber. The materials in the bridges of District One, therefore, cost the county $974 per thousand feet, whereas the best creosoted timber can be gotten for $160 per thousand. This is only one direction in which the taxpayers' money is going."

"Many people do not realize that the official minutes of the Board do not tell everything that is going on. To substantiate this assertion, I am listing a report furnished by the auditor upon request of the Junkin Committee."

| "County of Hancock Statement purchases for the period Oct. 1, 1951, through Sept. 30, 1952 | | | |

All members of the Board of Supervisors except Johnson Shaw were unavailable for comment for this edition. Mr. Shaw did not comment.

Clerk of Court A. C. Mitchell stated that since the time of the audit released by Hubbard, the Board has disallowed various purchases. At present, according to Mitchell, there is one bill outstanding.

The charges registered by the Board were for district one in which now purchases total $5,859.28 for the present year.

Pass Schools Will Open On Sept. 8

W. S. Van Landingham, recently elected Superintendent of Pass Christian City Schools, announces that his entire faculty has been elected and school will open for registering students on Sept. 8 at 9 a. m.

On August 12 Mr. Landingham received his M. A. degree at Mississippi College.

Faculty for Pass High includes Robert Kneeland, Principal and teacher of science; Mrs. Gladys Broadus will teach English and Jr. High subjects; Mrs. Geraldine Orrell will be in charge of the Home Economics Dept.; Miss Opal Clayton will head the school of commerce; C. E. Holloway will teach history and act as coach, and Miss Olive Blair will teach High School English. Miss Blair is the most recent addition to the faculty and comes to the Pass from Barboursville, Ky.

Last year Pass High, including the students of Junior High's 7th and 8th grades, had approximately 200 students. Students come from Pass Christian, Henderson Point, Delisle and Pineville. Since De- Lisle and Pineville are not within the school district, students coming from this area pay a small tuition fee.

School board for the Pass High School and Pass Public Elementary School is composed of Messrs. W. A. Barksdale, Donald DeMeitz, J. W. Terrell, Jimmie C. Neace and A. B. Tipping.

The school board announces improvements have been made to the football field and school campus which was sodded with St. Augustine grass this summer. The school has been thoroughly cleaned and floors and furniture put in first class condition.

Miss Naomi Saucier, principal of the Pass Christian Public Elementary School, announced her faculty will register students beginning at nine o'clock on Sept. 8. The faculty consist of Mrs. Catherine McDonald, first grade; Miss Saucier, second grade; Mrs. Ella Tootle, third grade; Miss Adele Bielenberg, fourth grade Mrs. Kenneth Murphy, fifth grade and Mrs. Henry Lindsey, sixth grade. This school serves children from the Pass Christian-Henderson Point area and usually enrolls around 30 students for each room.

Playground for the small children is now under fence and arrangements with the dual intent of keeping children safely in and dogs out. New ground beyond the Episcopal Rectory is being cleared and eventually will become added playing space for the children. The P.-T. A. added filling and planted grass in the school yard this summer which has added attraction and safety to the area.

The Randolph School for Colored, located on Clark street and under the supervision of W. S. Van Landingham will be headed by Principal Brown again this year.

Mrs. Talbot Robbed

Over $100 was taken from the savings of Mrs. George Talbot, Old Spanish Trail, last Thursday, the sheriff's office reported. The robbery, which was probably committed by juveniles, occurred when Mrs. Talbot left her house to visit her son.

Local law enforcers pieced together a chance incident with top cooperation from Jackson County officials to solve a $100 robbery at W. A. McDonald's & Sons here this week.

Arrested in Pascagoula Wednesday was Herbert Lowry of 738 Telephone Road, Pascagoula, who confessed to Jackson County Sheriff Leo Byrd his participation in the robbery.

Sheriff John Egloff of Hancock County recovered half the loot of 18 cases of cigarettes stolen from McDonald's Monday night. The Sheriff indicated he had a lead as to the whereabouts of the remainder of the loot, but he did not elaborate.

The arrest was made at about 3:30 a. m. Wednesday morning following a 20-hour hunt. Monday night at approximately midnight Sheriff Egloff said he was notified of a truck which was speeding and had broken down on Main Street. When he arrived at the scene he found the truck without a driver and became suspicious.

The next day McDonald's reported the robbery. A hole had been sawed from the bottom of the floor and Edward Fayard reported that he chased off a similar truck from the McDonald grounds at about 11:30 p. m.

The truck was traced to Jewel Jones, a Negro resident of Pascagoula.

It was learned that Lowry, who operated a Billups filling station, had part ownership in the truck with Jones. In his confession Lowry absolved Jones of any connection with the crime and even stated that Jones did not know the truck was used.

According to Lowry, a colored man named "Fats" approached him and offered cigarettes for sale at a very low price. Lowry, knowing that the goods would be stolen, accepted the offer.

"Fats" was offered the use of Jones' truck by Lowry, who was observed by an unidentified witness from Pascagoula making arrangements with "Fats."

Sheriff Egloff said the cooperation and ability of the Jackson County peace officers aided the search a great deal. He, Constable Nolan Kingston, Deputy Paul Egloff and Deputy Gregory Favre worked with Sheriff Leo Byrd from 8:30 a. m. Tuesday until Wednesday morning when the arrest was made at 3:30 a. m.

Sheriff Egloff said that two Negroes involved in the case are still missing. He identified one of them as Wide Newton, but said he did not know the name of the other.

Lowry said in his confession that when the truck broke down "Fats" moved the cigarettes to a Chevrolet car.

Confessed Lowry: "I do not know the time of night, but it was late the same night (Monday) that 'Fats' came back to the (Billups) station in . . . a black Chevrolet coach automobile with eight cases of cigarettes. I was supposed to pay Fats 50 per cent of what I sold the cigarettes for. I expected to be able to move them for about $1.50 a carton. I was told by Fats that a wheel of the truck had broken in Bay St. Louis, Miss. and that he had left it."

Also figuring in the case were Bay St. Louis City policeman Leon Capdepon and Pat Garcia, Sheriff Egloff said. He also thanked the Pascagoula police for their help.

John McDonald of W. A. McDonald & Sons expressed great relief that the goods had been recovered. "We've had a lot of robberies lately," McDonald said. "I certainly want to congratulate the Sheriff and all those who worked with him for solving the case so quickly."

The Mercadal Grocery store on Dunbar Avenue was robbed the night of August 13 of approximately $300 worth of merchandise.

Mrs. and Mrs. Mercadal discovered the theft when they entered the store Friday morning and found the back door open. Further examination showed the cash register had been ransacked. But since no cash had been left in the grocery when it was closed Thursday night about nine o'clock, intruders had turned to supplies for their loot.

This was the second time in four years Mrs. Mercadal said, that the store had been robbed.

The four sons of Mr. and Mrs. George are working at Higgins Ship family breadwinners since their father became ill two months ago and was ordered to bed for a six months' rest.

You may think this is nothing unusual until you know that the oldest boy, George, is only 17. George is working at Higgins Ship Yard in Gentilly and drives over a hundred miles to and from work each day.

Sherman, another of the children works at Ortie's Bayou Caddy camp.

The two others, Marion 10, and Bobby 11, ride their bikes each morning at dawn to Sportsmen's Lake where they sell bait and help Mr. Fowler run the camp.

Stanislaus Ups It Registration

Registration for day students at St. Stanislaus showed a 50 per cent jump, it was revealed this week. Extensive improvements have been made to take care of the increase. Some 400 from this area have registered.

Creeping Prosperity—

One newspaper editor recently got his fill of the efforts of some enemies of rural electrification to label it as "creeping socialism." His anger spilled out in a hot editorial.

First of all, he said, there is not the slightest connection between farmer-owned rural electric systems and socialism -- creeping or otherwise. Socialism, he wrote, means government ownership and the government no more owns a rural electric system than a bank owns a farm on which it holds a mortgage.

But the thing which did more than anything else to anger the editor was that anyone would attack this program which has done so much for rural areas. He pointed out all that rural electrification had done for farmers, businessmen and everyone else in his community. "Creeping prosperity," he wrote, "would be a far better term for rural electrification."

As a locally-owned, locally-controlled business working for the prosperity of our community, we are glad to see this unbiased recognition of a job being well done. We are especially glad because the editor recognized that it is being well done in the best sense of free American enterprise.

JUNIOR FISHING RODEO
Looks as though the young fishermen are going to have some fun and win some cash prizes when they participate in the Junior Fishing Rodeo, slated for Saturday, September 5 and sponsored by the local American Legion at the Legion pier. The awards will be many.

When University of Mississippi marine biologists come back from a fishing trip they brag about the "little ones that get away." The water-dwelling creatures they seek on frequent expeditions to nearby Sardis Lake are tiny organisms called plankton, and if it were not for them the world would have no fish, large or small. Plankton are the chief food of minnows and other small fish which are the bread and butter of larger fish. Without plankton, to start the chain of food production there would be no water animals. A large number of plankton would indicate a plentiful supply of fish in a certain lake, and the legal limit in such a place could be high. But in a locale where there are few plankton, the fish would be scarce, and a low limit should be set to keep the stream or lake from being fished out.

Brothers Ashton, Arvin etc. of St. Stanislaus College, report a nice catch of big speckles off the Keys last week. The Brothers are ardent fishermen and get their share of speckled beauties.

Mississippi Among

Leading Tree Farm

States of Nation

Mississippi ranks high among the 48 states in the number of tree farms whose owners are demonstrating both the desire and ability to protect their woodland and manage it for the continuous production of useful forest products. Only two states—Alabama and Texas—have more tree farmers than Mississippi.

As of August 1, there were 401 tree farms in Mississippi with a total acreage of 1,101,929. That represents an increase of 71 farms over a year ago, and an additional 156,260 acres of privately-owned, taxpaying forestland dedicated to the growing of forest crops for commercial purposes.

Texas has 468 tree farms, and Alabama 434.

Mississippi's tree farm program was launched November 4, 1944 under sponsorship of the Mississippi Forestry Association with co-operation and assistance from the Southern Pine Association and American Forest Products Industries.

City Echoes

Mrs. Guy Burkin and her children, Shirley, Ronald and Louise, have returned from a visit to Dallas, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brannon and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brannon for a week.

Mrs. J. D. Martinez and her sister, Mrs. Hanson Ferrell, left this week for a two or three week's trip to the Ozarks. During their absence their home will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maurin of New Orleans.

Seminary Retreat

Is Concluded

The ninth annual weekend retreats for laymen were completed with a record registration of 309 retreatants, who attended five different weekend retreats during July and August, at St. Augustine's Seminary.

The retreat master was the Rev. George Wilson, S. V. D., a native of New York and an alumnus of St. Augustine's Seminary, and missionary from Accra, West Africa.

The retreats were under the direction of the Laymen's Retreat League of St. Augustine's Seminary.

The 309 men came from many sections of the South, including the states of Louisiana with 253, Alabama with 24, Mississippi 27, Georgia with 1, and Texas with 4.

An attractive feature, which was added a few years ago, and still popular was the 15-minute visit to the Blessed Sacrament by each retreatant during the course of the retreat.

New Forestry

Record In

National Parks

The 50-year record of the National Forest was broken this fiscal year when the volume of timber cut from the country's National forests reached an all-time high of five billion 160 million feet. This information was contained in a report received by Act-Forest Supervisor John Cooper from Regional Forester Charles A. Connaughton of Atlanta.

Mississippi's contribution to the total volume of timber sold amounted to 87,220,000 board feet, and the total income from the Mississippi National Forests to $1,624,139, of which 25 per cent will be paid to the 28 counties in which the National Forests are located.

County Agent Notes
By HOWARD SIMMONS

DAIRY

With plenty of high roughage, cut when immature—grasses just booting to head out—and saved carrying a bright green color, dairymen will not have to worry too much about feed-in-the-sack from the feed merchant. They will be able to keep more of that milk check for other farm and home uses.

Producers should make their milk production out of roughage and grazing rather than from high cost concentrate feeds.

INSECT CONTROL
Cool weevils are not migrating. Farmers should check their fields at least twice a week. Dust applications should be increased to at least 15 pounds per acre at intervals of not more than four days apart. If using sprays, increase the concentrate by using one-third less water.

DDT for Peach Tree Borer Control. Unless already made, now is the time to make the first application of insecticide for peach tree borer control. Do not delay. This job should be done in early August.

Here is how to mix the spray material: Mix one pound of 50 percent DDT wettable powder with -2 gallons of water. Spray the trunk and lower parts of larger limbs.

The second application of insecticide should be made September 5-10; and the third, October 10th. After using this recommended treatment examine carefully the trees during late October or early November and if you find any borers, treat the infected trees with ethylene dichloride emulsion.

Little Theatre Solds Buffet

Members of the production of "The Voice of the Turtle" and "The Magic of Time" and "The Magic of Time" of this season were present at the informal buffet supper following the final performance of "Man" Saturday.

One of every 11 homes in the U. S. has water pipes repaired, a bathroom tiled or a shower installed in an average year, the report revealed. Six of every 100 have carpentry work done.

The kitchen is the area most families want to improve first. The resulting demand for new major equipment, clay tile for counter tops and drainboards, and kitchen cabinets means prosperity in the community for many concerns and for skilled workmen, the report points out.

Home repair expenditures throughout the nation will total almost $4 billion in 1953, the Tile Council report estimated. This will be one of the heaviest outlays in U. S. history for such work.

Gladys and Peter Monroe are at home again after a visit to Cape Cod to see their daughter Betty and her husband, Commander John Lacouture. Betty has just returned from Hyannis Hospital with Richard, a new baby brother for Joan, Jon and Susan. Susan calls Grandfather Peter, "Lover Man."

Betty and Donald Doyle and all seven of the children, including Baby Louise, are very busy. Donald and Donnie go fishing together and Donnie actually caught a seven pound redfish - but it got away. Betty, their daughter goes horseback riding regularly. Crabbing and swimming keep the rest of the family busy.

Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Doyle, the Doyle family grandmothers, were at the guest cottage this past week. Sophia Richardson is also visiting with the Doyles.

Ellis and Betty Henican have a list of family and guests each summer weekend. Maria Pratt is Dot's guest at this time and Peggy has gone to the Duke Ranch at Gulf Hills with Kitty Barkley and her mother. Alice is just back from Minneapolis where she was attendant in a lovely wedding and then visited other friends in the Mid-West. Mary and Johnny d'Aquin are enjoying a delightful vacation in the Matthews cottage while Mrs. Matthews is a guest of Cora and Bill Creighton.

The Ben Moises who have both been sick in New Orleans the better part of the past month, are really enjoying their lovely cottage with its charming view of the water through the trees.

To the great regret of their many friends in Bay St. Louis and Waveland, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tricou, have sold their home on the Beach. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Landache will be the new owners.

At Lacey and Genevieve Richardson's pretty home the guests last week were Lacey's mother, Mrs. W. L. Richeson, Mrs. Edna Holway, Mrs. Hazel Rickett, Mrs. Andrew L. Kuhn and Andrew L. Kuhn, Jr. Genevieve is visiting her brother in Carlsbad, New Mexico, but expects to be home soon.

Adrian and Lizzie Maught and their family have taken the old Hava home for the summer.

Mabel and Turk Carter are motoring in Florida with the Frances Sherwoods of New Orleans. The Carter's grandson, Nep Smith has just returned from Camp Hy-Lake where he spent two wonderful months.

Wilma and Larry Hill are entertaining Joseph and Lillian Griffin of New Orleans. Wilma and the baby have just returned from a long motor trip to Cordele, Georgia, where they visited her brother who had been quite ill but is now much better.

Helene Farris has been visiting with Gulf Coast friends to say "Goodbye" before returning to London, England, with her daughter Diane, who goes back to Oxford to complete her studies. Mary Lou, Helene's other daughter, will remain in New Orleans.

Huge Outlays Planned in County For Repairs

Hancock County home owners will spend an estimated $461,000 during 1953 on repairing and modernizing non-farm dwellings.

"As the great postwar home building boom begins to slacken, home repair and reconstruction will assume major importance to the building trades in every community," said Robert Bailey, chairman of the residential construction committee of the Tile Council of America, which released the estimate.

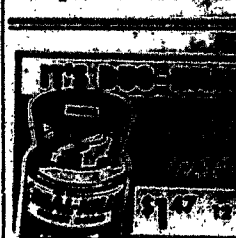

Nearly two of every three home owners here will make some expenditure during the year to improve their property, according to the report. Painting of either the exterior or interior will be the most common repair, with replacing or repairing roofs second.

One of every 11 homes in the U. S. has water pipes repaired, a bathroom tiled or a shower installed in an average year, the report revealed. Six of every 100 have carpentry work done.

The kitchen is the area most families want to improve first. The resulting demand for new major equipment, clay tile for counter tops and drainboards, and kitchen cabinets means prosperity in the community for many concerns and for skilled workmen, the report points out.

MEET THE
"INVISIBLE MEN"
IN YOUR KITCHEN

Dependable natural gas service doesn't "just happen." Back of your gas range is an army of skilled workers engaged in finding, producing and delivering gas, not only for cooking, but for many other uses in the homes and factories of the nation.

Some of the most important "invisible men" in your kitchen are the producers—the men who take the enormous financial risks necessary to drill a well in search of oil and gas. "Risk?" you say. Only one out of nine exploratory wells drilled in the nation last year was a producer!

But the gas industry will continue to discover new reserves, so long as natural gas sells at prices that will provide the incentive to locate, transport and distribute this matchless fuel. Actually, we think you'll agree that natural gas is worth every cent you pay for it... and then some!

Miss Knowles Visits Library Views Work

The big job of arranging and cataloging the new $20,000 collection of books in the Hancock County Library went forward this week, highlighted by a visit from the "book" donor, Miss Ruth Knowles, who helped make available for inspection several of the more valuable items in the group.

Among the contributions to the library this week were several more tables, bookcases and chairs, given by Miss Knowles. Mrs. Joe Sick gave five dollars to the library fund.

William Helen Page donated $3. In last week's Sea Coast Echo the American Legion donation was erroneously listed as 50 cents instead of $50.00.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Blair of Waveland left this past weekend for Popoka Lodge, N. C. On their return trip they will visit their daughter, Mrs. W. B. Macmillan in Cleveland, Tenn.

Mississippi has its

QUARTER-OF-A-MILLIONTH Telephone

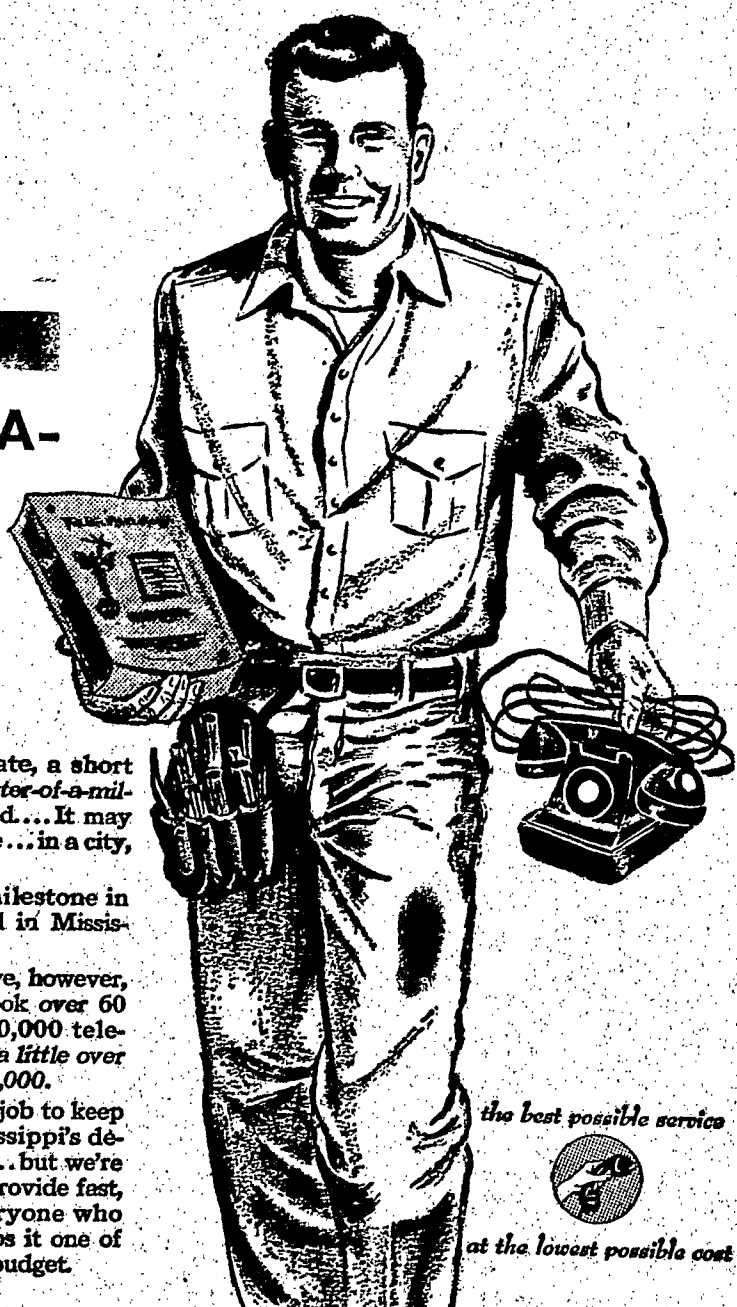

Somewhere in the State, a short time ago, Mississippi's quarter-of-a-millionth telephone was installed... It may have been in a home, or office... in a city, small town or on a farm.

That's an important milestone in the history of Southern Bell in Mississippi.

It's even more impressive, however, when you consider that it took over 60 years to reach the first 100,000 telephones in the State; and just a little over 7 years to add the other 150,000.

It's a big and expensive job to keep pace with prospering Mississippi's demands for telephone service... but we're hard at it. We're working to provide fast, dependable service for everyone who wants it... at a cost that keeps it one of the best values in the family budget.

Historic Doll At Style Show On Wednesday

One of the highlights of the children's style show sponsored by the P. T. A. of Christ Church Parish School at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club this Wednesday, August 26, will be Jibby, a doll who has seen many style changes in children's apparel.

Jibby has been observing children for five generations and has been handed down from mother to daughter through the years until now she belongs to Mrs. Ruth Hackett East, one of the designers of the clothes to be modeled at the show. Jibby is 18 inches tall and is made of cloth including her face, which is the oil painted features and black painted hair. Her shoes are of red material and she wears authentic layers of old fashioned underclothes, but her dress is a copy of one of the latest.

She will sit on a trunk almost as old as she is, but like her dress the trunk has also been refurbished with shiny black paint, bright brass hinges and new lining.

Mrs. East was graduated from McGee's in 1939 and graduated from Vassar in 1943 with a History and art major. She has been dressing dolls since she was a little girl and has always liked to sew. While she was still in high school she began to design children's clothes, and several times was almost put out of her classes McGee's for drawing what her teachers called "paper dolls."

During her college days at Vassar she and her roommate did a great deal of sewing. They designed and created skirts for sale and the proceeds went for the 75th anniversary celebration of the school. Actually, nothing has completely interrupted her designing career. During the war when she was traveling around the country with her husband, then in service, she took a design course at the National Academy of Dress Design. And now after 11 years of marriage and four children ranging in age from 3 years to six months she is still designing. Even with the children she allows herself a few special hours a day for her work.

MISS ANN LOUISE MCINNIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. McInnis of Lake Charles, La., was married Sunday, August 2, to Charles Mallory Banister, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Banister of this city, in a ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents.

Dr. Paul Roberts of the First Baptist Church in Lake Charles officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gownned in a ballerina length dress of white lace over taffeta. It featured a yoke of illusion trimmed with medallions and rhinestones and a stand-up collar. A lace hat trimmed with rhinestones held in place her crushed veil of illusion. She carried a white Bible on which was mounted a white orchid and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Miss Rachelle Tattle of Lake Charles. She wore a ballerina length dress of pink rayon net over taffeta. It had a lace bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. Her colonial bouquet was of pink carnations and chrysanthemums.

Acting as best man for his son was Dr. Charles M. Banister. The ceremony took place before an arch decorated with garlands and flanked with standards of white gladiol, which were used throughout the home as decoration. A reception followed the ceremony.

Hancock Forests Queen

A "Queen of the Forest" for Hancock County will be chosen in the near future, according to Area Forester Jack Stewart.

He announced that in cooperation with the forestry commission program, the county and district queens will be chosen during the next two months in preparation for the State Contest to be held in Jackson, October 12 at the annual forestry products parade and state fair.

Lakeshore Civic Hall Has Free For All Saturday

What started out to be a peaceful Saturday night dance ended in a free-for-all at the Lakeshore Civic Hall early Sunday morning.

Cause of the fighting was unknown, but an unidentified man from Kenner, La., received a broken arm and was taken to Charity Hospital in New Orleans.

Slightly injured was a Bay St. Louis deputy constable who received a head injury while on duty.

Families living near the hall said that the noise caused by the activities Saturday night made it impossible to sleep. It is reported that in investigation of the privileges of the hall will be undertaken.

Some Lakeshore residents are contemplating selling the hall in order to purchase a fishing pier because of the incident.
